

VERMONT
FARM TO FAMILY PROGRAM

What Is It? $30 in coupons to buy fresh fruits, fresh vegetables, and fresh cut herbs at over forty Vermont farmers markets, plus information about farmers markets and using fresh produce. The coupons are issued on a first come, first served basis.

Who Is Eligible? Women, children, and infants over six months old enrolled in the WIC Program run by the Health Department. Also, any other household whose income is below a limit based on family size. For instance, the 2007 limits are $1,575 a month for a single person, $2,111 a month for a couple, or $3,184 a month for a family of four. Community Action Agencies issue the coupons to non-WIC households, including some coupons reserved for low income people aged sixty or older.

When Is It Available? 2007 coupon distribution starts June 25 and lasts until coupon supplies run out. Coupon supplies are limited. The coupons are issued at the same time the application is filled out. They are valid for only the 2007 farmers market season.

How Do I Apply? Families taking part in the WIC Program must apply through WIC and may learn the Farm To Family schedule from their June WIC newsletter or by calling their district Health office or 1-800-464-4343, extension 7333. All other households should contact their Community Action Agency (listed below) in mid-June to learn where and when they are taking coupon applications.
