WHAT CAN A COMMUNICATION SPECIALIST DO?

- Assess the communication strengths & weaknesses of the person with a disability.
- Assist in developing a plan for accommodations that will allow the participant to effectively communicate and understand the proceeding or meeting
- Assist in requesting the necessary accommodation
- Implement identified accommodations by providing communication support in the administrative or judicial proceedings
- Model effective communication techniques for other individuals in the proceeding

"Having a VCSP Communication Specialist was very helpful! There were things that I didn't know about how things work at the court and she explained those to me. Also, having time to talk before and after my hearing gave me confidence that I had understood everything that I needed to in order to make good decisions."

~Litigant

CONTACT VCSP

For help in understanding court or administrative hearings

VERMONT COMMUNICATION SUPPORT PROJECT

Lynne C. Goodson, Director VCSP 141 Main St., Suite #7 Montpelier, VT 05602 1-888-686-VCSP (8277) csp@DisabilityRightsVt.org www.disbabilityrightsvt.org

VCSP is a project of Disability Rights Vermont.

For more information about Disability Rights

Vermont visit us on the web at www.disabilityrightsvt.org

This project was made possible by a grant from the Vermont Agency of Human Services

VERMONT COMMUNICATION SUPPORT PROJECT

Providing specialized communication accommodations for people with disabilities to assure equal access to our system of justice and state services

WHAT WE DO

The Vermont Communication Support Project assists individuals with disabilities that impact their ability to communicate.

The VCSP helps in court and administrative proceedings, and in communications with attorneys or agency personnel.

WHAT IS A COMMUNICATION SPECIALIST?

A Communication Specialist is an individual specially trained to understand the communication needs of individuals with disabilities such as traumatic brain injuries, learning disabilities, developmental disabilities, autism spectrum disorders, mental illness, aphasia and other stroke related conditions.

They understand the barriers to effective communication and can help to overcome those barriers with effective accommodations.

The Communication Specialists can assist individuals to effectively participate in court or administrative proceedings.

WHO DOES THE VERMONT COMMUNICATION SUPPORT PROJECT SERVE?

The Project serves individuals with disability-related communication barriers that prevent them from fully participating in civil court and administrative proceedings. Examples include:

- Divorce
- Parental Rights and Responsibilities
- Child Support
- Relief from Abuse and Stalking
- CHINS (child in need of supervision)
- Termination of Parental Rights
- DCF Case Management
- Eviction
- Small Claims
- Probate / Guardianship
- State Administrative Proceedings

- VCSP SERVICES ARE CONFIDENTIAL
- VCSP SERVICES ARE FREE FOR LITIGANTS

"The VCSP's services have been outstanding in quality and a great boon to the clients themselves, as well as to the fair administration of the legal system in their cases. With skill and understanding, the VCSP communication specialists help clients better understand the situations before them, which greatly support their navigation and communication with elements of the social and judicial systems."

 ${\sim}\,Jonathan\,Heppell, Esq.$

The VCSP makes available and supports a trained cadre of Communication Support Specialists qualified and accepted by Vermont's judiciary and administrative agencies.

"There are many disabilities that can affect a person's ability to communicate and comprehend the judicial process. As certified communication specialists, we are trained to provide the support and necessary accommodations to ensure that people are being offered an equal opportunity. This respects the civil rights of people with disabilities and provides for an efficient judicial system."

~ Hilde Hyde, VCSP Communication Specialist